

See more of the country has Americans. STEPHAN SAVOIA/AP

Selling is worse is and cash, Fidelity says. The handling investment decisions percent in stocks, according to same advice when the market ow," said Jeanne Thompson, t Fidelity Investments. "Make

're properly allocated and not Make sure you're able to sleep lance

can benefit from investing in ng history of sharp swings in e on to recover - eventually - y've had and deliver some of urns.

ally recommend that younger arket's gyrations and, if any-n opportunity to buy more They have the luxury of wait-very. Investment companies ers in their 20s keep about folios in stocks.

nearing retirement or already
r. They may not have as long a g as fresh graduates, but long-may have more than a decade.
e traditionally supposed to be egg, are looking riskier. If incted, bond fund prices would urns.

time, at least in my memory, o where to invest," said JJ Ki-ategist at TD Ameritrade. investors should be able to ock portion of their portfolio for the recent passage of the federal Tax Cuts and Jobs Act, which cut the corporate tax rate to 21 percent from 35 percent.

Excluding one-time items, including the deferred tax and other asset valuation adjustments, the company reported a loss of 42 cents a share for its first quarter.

The results "reflect the seasonal nature of the company's business," the company stated Tuesday In a news release.

Most of the company's profits are recorded in the

See ALICO, Page 2B

IT'S YOUR BUSINESS

Panel discussion

The Greater Naples Chamber of Commerce will host a panel from local universities associated with the 2018 Workforce Now report at 7:30 a.m.
Tuesday at Wake Up Naples at the Hilton Naples.
The panel will feature: Christopher Westley, of Florida Gulf Coast University; Aysegul Timur, of Hodges University; and Robert Jones, of Florida SouthWestern State University. Registration: www.napleschamber.org/events.

Philanthropy

The Neighborhood Health Clinic — a nonprofit volunteer-driven organization providing Collier County's low-income, working and uninsured residents medical and dental care — and Tru Glo Med-spa raised $4,300 at the Spa with a Cause event in January.

Anniversary

Occhiuzzo

Kenya Occhiuzzo, patient coordinator, recently celebrated her 10-year anniversary with Richichi Family Health. Occhiuzzo has been with the practice since Joseph Richichi MD opened his North Naples office at Immokalee Road and Airport Road.

New hire

Advance Medical of Naples announced the addition of Amanda Markusson as family nurse practitioner. Before joining Advance Medical, 720 Goodlette Road, Markusson was at Vava Clinic in Naples.